Board Appointment and Nasdaq Compliance

On March 19, 2026, Gauzy Ltd. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Joseph Tenne to its Board of Directors (“Board”). Additionally, the Board has determined that Mr. Tenne qualifies as independent in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market, LLC.

Mr. Tenne will serve as the Chairman of the Company’s Audit Committee and as a member of the Compensation Committee. Following Mr. Tenne’s appointment, together with the previously announced board appointments of Michael Martin, Shlomo Bibas and Renah Persofsky, the Company’s Audit Committee will consist of Joseph Tenne (chair), Shlomo Bibas and Renah Persofsky and its Compensation Committee will consist of Michael Martin (chair), Renah Persofsky and Joseph Tenne.

With the appointment of Mr. Tenne to the Board and the reconstitution of the Company’s Audit and Compensation Committees, the Company confirms that it has regained compliance with Nasdaq’s continued listing requirements related to board and committee independence under Nasdaq Listing Rules 5605(b)(1), 5605(c)(2), and 5605(d)(2).

On March 19, 2026, the Company issued a press release announcing the above-referenced matters. A copy of this press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The information in this Report on Form 6-K (this “Report”), including Exhibit 99.1 attached hereto, is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing made by the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as otherwise set forth herein or as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Report contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements contained in this Report include, but are not limited to, statements regarding Gauzy's strategic and business plans, technology, relationships, objectives and expectations for its business, growth, the impact of trends on and interest in its business, intellectual property, products and its future results, operations and financial performance and condition and may be identified by the use of words such as "may," "seek," "will," "consider," "likely," "assume," "estimate," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "believe," "do not believe," "aim," "predict," "plan," "project," "continue," "potential," "guidance," "objective," "outlook," "trends," "future," "could," "would," "should," "target," "on track" or their negatives or variations, and similar terminology and words of similar import, generally involve future or forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements reflect Gauzy's current views, plans, or expectations with respect to future events and financial performance. They are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, and other risks, uncertainties, and contingencies. Forward-looking statements are based on Gauzy's current expectations and are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and assumptions that are difficult to predict including, without limitation, the following: statements regarding the French court-supervised reorganization proceedings (redressement judiciaire), the call for public tenders and related process, and the timing and potential outcomes of that process; Gauzy's ability to meet stock exchange continued listing standards and remain listed on Nasdaq; Gauzy's ability to secure funding in order to maintain and support its operations; the outcome of the insolvency proceedings commenced in France and the overall impact they may have on the Company's operations and financial condition; Gauzy invests significant effort and capital seeking validation of its light and vision control products with OEMs and Tier 1 suppliers, mainly in the aeronautics and automobile markets, and there can be no assurance that it will win production models, which could adversely affect its future business, results of operations and financial condition; failure to make competitive technological advances will put Gauzy at a disadvantage and may lead to a negative operational and financial outcome; Gauzy being an early growth-stage company with a history of losses and its anticipation that it expects to continue to incur significant losses for the foreseeable future; its operating results and financial condition have fluctuated in the past and may fluctuate in the future; it is exposed to high repair and replacement costs; it may not be able to accurately estimate the future supply and demand for its light and vision control products, which could result in a variety of inefficiencies in its business and hinder its ability to generate revenue; if it fails to accurately predict its manufacturing requirements, it could incur additional costs or experience delays; the estimates and forecasts of market opportunity and market growth it provides may prove to be inaccurate, and it cannot assure that its business will grow at similar rates, or at all; it may be unable to adequately control the capital expenditures and costs associated with its business and operations; it may need to raise additional capital before it can expect to become profitable from sales of its light and vision control products, which such additional capital may not be available on acceptable terms, or at all, and failure to obtain this necessary capital when needed may force it to delay, limit or terminate its product development efforts or other operations; shortages in supply, price increases or deviations in the quality of the raw materials used to manufacture its products could adversely affect its sales and operating results; its business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected by disruptions in the global economy caused by the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine; it is subject to, and must remain in compliance with, numerous laws and governmental regulations across various countries concerning the manufacturing, use, distribution and sale of its light and vision control products, and some of its customers also require that it complies with other unique requirements relating to these matters; if it is unable to obtain, maintain and protect effective intellectual property rights for its products throughout the world, it may not be able to compete effectively in the markets in which it operates; the market price of its ordinary shares may be volatile or may decline steeply or suddenly regardless of its operating performance, and it may not be able to meet investor or analyst expectations; its indebtedness could adversely affect its ability to raise additional capital to fund operations, limit its ability to react to changes in the economy or its industry and prevent it from meeting its financial obligations; it has limited operating experience as a publicly traded company in the United States; conditions in Israel could materially and adversely affect its business; and any other risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, the risks and uncertainties in the Company's reports filed from time to time with the SEC, including, but not limited to, the risks detailed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC on March 11, 2025. Further, certain forward-looking statements are based on assumptions as to future events that may not prove to be accurate. The inclusion of forward-looking statements in this or any other communication should not be considered as a representation by Gauzy or any other person that current plans or expectations will be achieved. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and Gauzy undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise, except as otherwise required by law.

Gauzy Strengthens Board and Regains Compliance with Nasdaq Listing RequirementsAppointment of Joseph Tenne Adds Public Company Leadership as Gauzy Advances Growth and Shareholder Value*

TEL AVIV, Israel – March 19, 2026 – Gauzy Ltd. (Nasdaq: GAUZ) (“Gauzy” or the “Company”), a global leader in vision and light control technologies, today announced the appointment of Joseph Tenne to its Board of Directors. Mr. Tenne brings more than two decades of senior financial leadership and public company governance experience across global technology and energy companies. Mr. Tenne will also serve as the Chair of the Company’s audit committee and as a member of the compensation committee.

With this appointment, and together with the recent additions of Michael Martin, Shlomo Bibas and Renah Persofsky to the Board, Gauzy has regained compliance with Nasdaq’s continued listing requirements related to board and committee independence under Nasdaq Listing Rules 5605(b)(1), 5605(c)(2), and 5605(d)(2).

“We are thrilled to welcome Mr. Tenne to Gauzy’s Board of Directors,” said Eyal Peso, Chief Executive Officer of Gauzy. “His financial expertise, experience leading public companies, and broad board perspective will be invaluable as Gauzy advances its growth strategy and strengthens its position in global vision and light control technologies.”

Mr. Tenne added, “Gauzy has built a strong reputation for innovation in advanced materials and vision systems. I look forward to working with the Board and management team to drive continued growth and create long-term value for shareholders.”

Mr. Tenne currently serves on the board of directors of AudioCodes Ltd. (Nasdaq and TASE: AUDC), MIND CTI Ltd. (Nasdaq: MNDO), OPC Energy Ltd. (TASE: OPCE), Electreon Wireless Ltd. (TASE: ELWS), and Luzon Credit and Finance Ltd. (TASE: LUZC). His experience spans financial strategy, capital markets, corporate governance, and operational leadership across publicly listed companies in multiple industries.

Previously, Mr. Tenne served as a financial executive at Itamar Medical Ltd. (NASDAQ and TASE: ITMR) from May 2017 to August 2023, including as Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer from August 2014 to April 2017. From 2005 to 2013, he served as Chief Financial Officer of Ormat Technologies, Inc. (NYSE and TASE: ORA), where he played a key role in supporting the company’s global growth and capital markets strategy.

Earlier in his career, he served as Chief Financial Officer of Treofan Germany GmbH & Co. KG and was a partner at Kesselman & Kesselman (PwC Israel), a member firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers, advising multinational clients on financial reporting, auditing, and corporate transactions.

Mr. Tenne holds a B.A. in Accounting and Economics and an M.B.A. from Tel Aviv University and is a Certified Public Accountant in Israel.

With his deep financial and governance experience, Mr. Tenne will help Gauzy drive growth, execute its strategic initiatives, and create long-term value for shareholders. His appointment further strengthens the Board and underscores the Company’s commitment to leadership in vision and light control technologies.
